Election/Restriction

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 3, 14, drawn to an immunostimulatory composition comprising a nucleic acid polymer composed of at least one CpG motif, which is encapsulated in a lipid particle comprising a cationic lipid, classifiable in class 514, subclass 44.
- II. Claims 2, 13, drawn to an immunostimulatory composition comprising a nucleic acid polymer which is a non-sequence specific immunostimulatory sequence, which is encapsulated in a lipid particle comprising a cationic lipid, classifiable in class 514, subclass 44.
- III. Claims 4, 15, drawn to an immunostimulatory composition comprising a nucleic acid polymer which has no detectable immunostimulatory activity in the mammal in the absence of a lipid particle, which is encapsulated in said lipid particle comprising a cationic lipid, classifiable in class 514, subclass 44.

Claim 1, wherein claims 5-12, 16-19 are all dependent from claim 1, is identified as the linking claim among inventions I-III. Note that the restriction requirement between the linked inventions is subject to the nonallowance of the linking claim(s), as listed above. Upon the allowance of the linking claims, the restriction requirement as to the linked invention shall be withdrawn and any claim(s) depending from or otherwise including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) will be entitled to examination in the instant application. Applicant(s) are advised that if any such (claim(s) depending from or including all the limitations of the allowable lining claim(s) is/are presented in a continuation or divisional application, the claims or the continuation or divisional application may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. Where a restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. See In re Ziegler, 44 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01.

Should invention I, II, or III be elected, claims 20-21 will be examined together with the elected claimed invention.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I, II and III are distinct because the invention each is directed to the use of a distinct material of a nucleic acid polymer. A search of the use of a CpG motif containing sequence which sequence-specific immunostimulatory, does not necessarily overlap with that of a nucleic acid polymer which inert by itself, nor is it the same as a nucleic acid polymer which is a non-sequence specific immunostimulatory oligo.

Should any of Inventions I-III be elected, a following species restriction is required:

The claims of any of Invention I-III are generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising:

A specifically named cationic lipid as listed in claim 6, 17, which is used to complex with a DNA for gene transfer.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species of a specific named cationic lipid as recited in the to be elected claimed invention even though this requirement is traversed.

A specifically named antigenic molecule as listed in claim 11.

Applicant is further required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species of a specific named antigenic molecule as recited in the to be elected claimed invention even though this requirement is traversed.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their divergent subject matter, fall into different statutory classes of invention, and are separately classified and searched, it would be unduly burdensome for the examiner to search and examine for patentability of all of the claimed inventions, and thus, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the response to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently-filed petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 C.F.R. § 1.17(h).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to examiner Dave Nguyen whose telephone number is (703) 305-2024.
